This week's issue of The News might correctly be described as the "City Edition." In it will be found many columns of news concerning the past, present and future of the City of Sierra Madre. On Page 1 we have featured the annual report made by City Administrator Lawrence Bevington. We think you will not find the report dull. It is written in a readable style and summarizes the accomplishments of the past year and the hopes for the future. We are unable to run the entire presentation in one issue because of its length. The portion unused in the Sept. 8 issue will be found in our edition of Sept. 15.

The second "City" feature is the legal notice on the highly controversial "City of Sierra Madre" zoning ordinance with a land use map. This will be found in the second section of today's paper.

"Men, the New Servant Class," an article which appeared recently in a national magazine, points out that the male member of the family not only earns the money to keep the roof over the heads of his brood, but today he is doubling as dishwasher, baby sitter, and housecleaner.

And now a recent poll sent to us reveals that seven out of 10 men shop in food stores at least once a week—which is much oftener than they did five years ago. Gals never had it so good, it seems!

Just to remind you: The float theme contest, sponsored by the Sierra Madre Float Association is now open and will continue through Oct. 3. An entry blank will be found on Page 2 and ballot boxes can be found in four food markets in Sierra Madre—Dickson's, Roberts, Roess's, Safeway, at the Shopping Bag in the Hastings Ranch area and at the office of The News.

The Lions Club is whipping up some good entertainment for their annual White Cane Days scheduled for Friday and Saturday, Sept. 16 and 17. Proceeds from the fund are used for visual aids, you will remember. Complete details will be found in next week's paper. Until then, keep your feet in the tub of ice cubes!

Around
the Square

By SEWALL CLARK

Every now and then a parked car in our village slips its moorings and goes rolling across the street to crash into another car—or a building. Sometimes these driverless cars find an open space where no damage is done, as happened a few weeks ago at the Roess Market parking lot when a certain vehicle backed away, curved across the street, and parked itself neatly in front of Ost's Nursery. Look, ma—no hands!

Most of the time, however, it's not so amusing. A few days later, a small truck parked on Kersting Court rolled backwards across the downgrade to plunge halfway through a large window. It was only a freak of circumstance, by which the base of the window caught the rear section of the truck, that kept it from going all the way through.

At the risk of sounding preachy, pal, there's a thing called a parking brake on your automobile. If any of you kids don't know where it is, get somebody to point it out to you.

These free-rolling cars don't always happen downtown, either. The News has printed stories of "parked" cars that have crashed from one neighbor's house to another. In one instance, the rolling monster broke through a wall to throw parents and children under their breakfast table which, in some "freakish" way, protected them.

Since last week, when we had a few paragraphs about cats that love to bum rides in automobiles, Marge Thomas, (Continued on Page 10)

Library Sound
Film Set for September 23Outstanding Movie in Color Next Offering

Because its film showing last month was such an outstanding success, the Friends of the Library program committee has chosen another sound movie in color for its September event which also will be free and open to the public.

The film selected is entitled "This Is My Land," and it will be projected Friday night, Sept. 23, in the Community Room of the Sierra Madre Public Library, according to an announcement by Lee Shippey, program chairman.

In obedience to fire regulations (attendance last month was almost double the capacity of the Community Room), there will be two showings, one at 7:30 p.m. to which children are especially invited, and another, not so "late show" at 8:15 p.m.

The "land" referred to in the title is, specifically, Southern California, and the film, produced by the Title Insurance and Trust Company of Los Angeles, depicts the colorful history and striding progress of this general area in which we live.

Norman Woest, a representative of the Title and Trust Company, will be on hand for both showings to add pertinent remarks to the film commentary.

Mr. Shippey has suggested that early arrivals for the "late" show might find it worthwhile to view the September exhibit of hand-crafted contemporary jewelry designed and wrought by Pasadena Charles A. Piper displayed in the library main building.

St. Rita's to Start School
Year Sept. 12

St. Rita's Parochial School will open its current year at 9 a.m. Monday, Sept. 12, according to Mother M. Rosalia, principal. The school has been in operation here since 1923, supervised by the Sisters of St. Francis.

The enrollment this year is the largest in the history of the school, with approximately 320 pupils registered in the first grade through the eighth.

New teachers this year are Sister M. Carol from Havre, Mont., teaching first grade, and Sister M. Irmengild from Sacramento, seventh grade.

Other teachers on the staff are Sister M. Hermana, second grade; Mrs. Thomas Dinlany, third grade; Sister M. Maria, fourth grade; Mrs. Marian B. Henning, fifth grade; Sister M. Elizabeth, sixth grade; and Mother M. Rosalia, eighth grade.

A "Kaffee Klatsch" will be held Monday morning, Sept. 12, in the parish hall to welcome all mothers. Those mothers whose children are enrolling in the school for the first time are especially invited.

Artist Phil Dike

Keeps 'Art From Flying Apart,'
Says Reviewer A. L. Suman

An exhibition of paintings of one of the country's foremost colorists, Phil Dike, opened Tuesday for one month at the Community Room of the Public Library. A. L. Suman, member of the Exhibits Committee of Friends of the Library, reviews his work as follows:

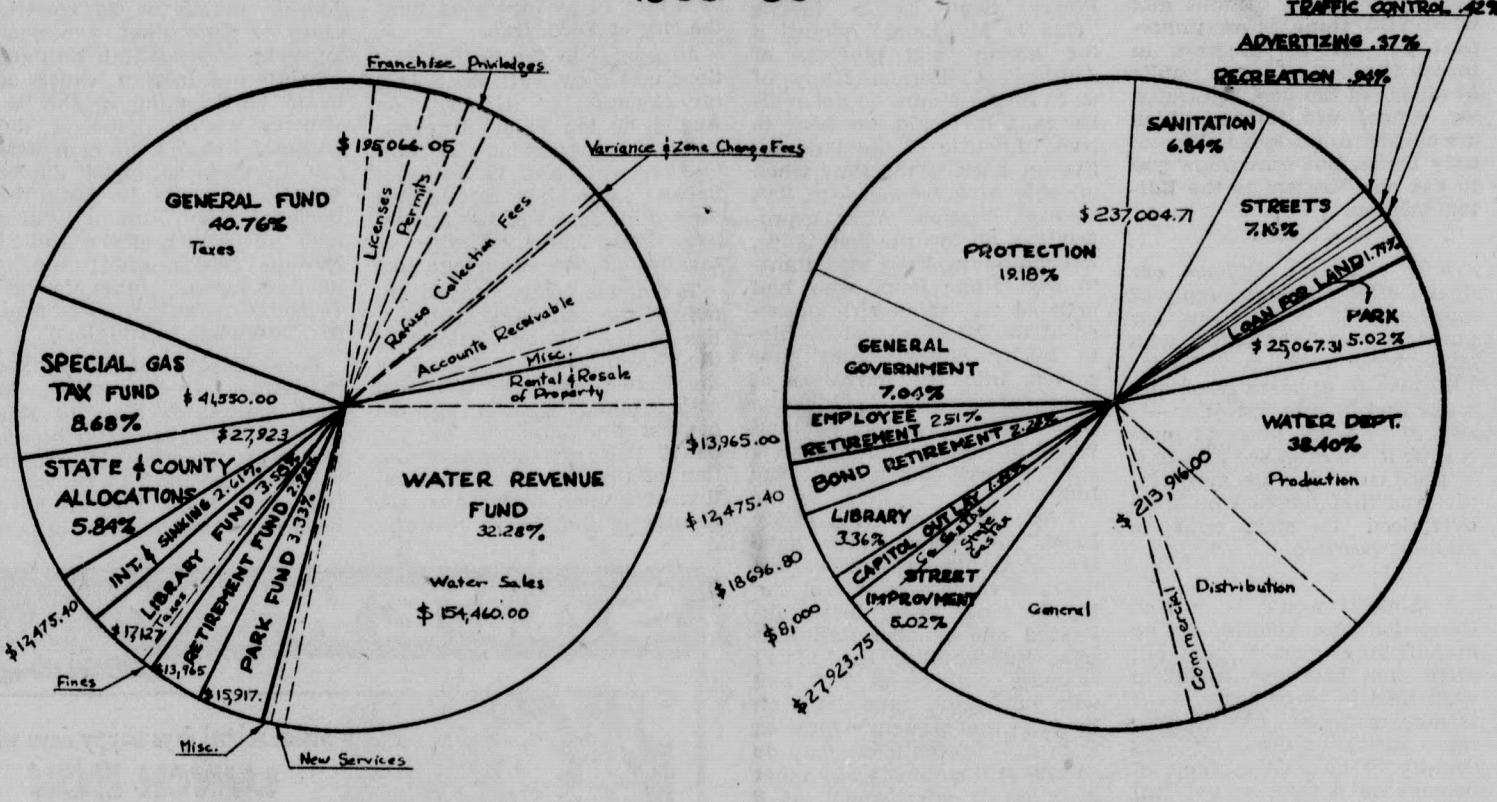

Reviewing a one-man show by a painter of Phil Dike's status is a pleasure and a privilege. Also it's easy, because to those who want to see good designing and painting, the most one can do is to point a finger at the Public Library and say, "There 'tis!"

Phil Dike is one of those painters—and there are not too many around—who keep Art, as it is called, from flying apart. Is his painting modern, contemporary, traditional, academic? It's all of these. Also it's good thick paint and good thin paint; good design and good composition; good drawing and good color—plenty good color. And all of these put together on good subject matter to demonstrate that good paintings just don't happen.

Dike's painting illustrates that Art, whether oil, water

— How Your City Tax Dollar is Spent —

1955-56

This Is Your Business
ANNUAL REPORT OF THE
CITY OF SIERRA MADRE
By LAWRENCE BEVINGTON,
City Administrator.

It is hoped that this will be the first of a series of Annual Reports presented by the City Council and administrative personnel to the citizens of Sierra Madre.

This report has the three-fold purpose of informing you of the general operation of the City, of the progress in the past year and plans for the future. It is a joint financial and work program, setting forth where city funds are obtained and where they are spent and what are the programs for improvement of the city in day to day maintenance projects as well as long range capital programs.

The tax rate is one important measuring stick to all levels of government, citizen and city official alike. To the citizen it is the direct cost of government, for the tax rate times his assessed valuation determines his known payment for services furnished by governmental agencies. To the City the tax rate is an important measuring stick that determines a major portion of the money available to furnish required services.

But a tax rate is not a cold number without reason and purpose. It represents many hours of study and review. It represents emphasis: what services are needed, level; do we need hourly patrol or daily, past; what debts have we accumulated, present; what must we do today, future; what plans are necessary for the years to come. In general it represents a budget or program of things past and things to come.

Just as there are many parts to any good program, there are many separate sections to the budget and the tax rate which is a result of the budget.

Budget, program, taxes, municipal finances. The remainder of this report will attempt to show the past year and the coming year program, how this program sets a budget, how part of this budget is met by taxes and what other methods of municipal finances are used.

Last year's tax rate was $1.70 per $100 assessed valuation. This tax rate covered six funds. These were general, park, library, debt retirement, employee retirement, and flood control. These terms are quite descriptive of the services or programs they represent. Last year emphasis was placed on obtaining the new library, starting a program of employee retirement, and enlarging on our items of flood protection. These items were either new on the tax rates or received an increased rate because of immediate need.

For the coming year a tax rate of $1.615 is planned. This again represents emphasis: The flood control hazard has been fairly well taken care of and the library is a reality, so the emphasis has been shifted to an enlarged park program. This does not mean that other needs are neglected, but in cities which are not financed by oil wells or large commerce or industrial areas progress must come by planned development based on completion of one item at a time.

In addition to monies realized from property taxes the city receives money for general and special purposes. To enumerate only a few of these: State and County Gas Tax funds for uses on streets; license and permit fees for general purposes; franchise fees for general purposes; subventions for State and County to be used for police and other related funds; refuse collection money to offset cost of collection of cans, garbage and combustibles.

(To Be Continued Next Week.)

Sierra Madre Meets
$314 Flood Quota

The $10,000,000 flood disaster fund requested by the American Red Cross for the relief of the people in the flood stricken areas has been met, according to a wire received by Florence Peterson, executive secretary of the Sierra Madre Chapter.

The quota of $314 set for Sierra Madre has been achieved, Mrs. Peterson told The News today. In a message from Ellsworth Bunker, president of the American Red Cross, he said, "Chapter leadership in this effort has been outstanding and we are grateful for your support. Through the generosity of the American people, we now have sufficient funds to meet adequately Red Cross requirements."

School for Nursery Age
Children Open

The Sierra Madre Community Nursery School opened Tuesday for another of its regular yearly series of classes, this time with an enrollment of 125 children who will attend on a two- and three-day basis each week.

Mrs. Marjorie Green, school director, has expressed regret that although 50 children have left to enter kindergarten, it still was possible to enroll only about half the children whose names were on the waiting list. Those parents who were not called are invited to register again if they are willing to wait awhile longer.

Principal teachers for the school year are Mrs. Eleanor Jacobs for group one; Mrs. Emily Tempes, group two; and Mrs. Edith Dane, group three. Two registered nurses, Mrs. Clyde Edwards and Mrs. David Allen, are in charge when it comes to admittance of the children.

The assistant teachers are chosen from among the qualified mothers who must enroll for the year in the training class offered by Pasadena City College which conducts the classes at the Nursery School.

Local Weather
Records Show
All-Time HighCooler Sometime; No
One Will Say When

According to legend, gems of wisdom have been dropped into the lap of the world by Confucius and all Scotchmen. One of the latter is reputed to have said this week, "It's too bad we should be having all this heat in the summertime, just when we don't need it."

Al Freeland, Water Department superintendent, reports that last Friday's temperature of 112 beats by one degree the all-time record since statistics were first compiled by his department, Oct. 1, 1937.

On Sept. 20 and 21, 1939, a heat wave of eight days' duration reached to a peak of 111. The hot siege began on Sept. 16 of that year, ending in a rainstorm of 3.85 inches in 24 hours on Sept. 23, which reduced the temperature from 104 to 84 the following day.

THE WEATHER

Aug. 31	106	68
Sept. 1	111	84
2	112	82
3	108	72
4	108	72

Freeland also reports that last Friday marked the city's highest water consumption—810,200 cubic feet, or 6,076,500 gallons, one cubic foot being equal to 7 1/2 gallons. The average summer day's consumption is 400,000 cubic feet, and the yearly average approximately 200,000 cubic feet, he said.

Freeland said the water supply is adequate, but only because his department is working 24 hours a day. Requesting citizens' cooperation he said, "In this department our slogan is, 'Don't waste water!'"

TWO TEAMS BATTLE TO A DECISION IN TENNIS CLUB MEET

In the play-offs arranged last Sunday morning by the Sierra Madre Tennis Club as a result of its most recent tournament competitions begun the previous Sunday, two doubles teams met on the new courts at City Park in final bracket games to decide the winning team.

The finalists were Hal Bogardus and Nan Owen, a team of experienced players who lost to a team of "Juniors," William Alvarez and Ricky Schmidt. The deciding scores were 2-6, 6-1, 6-1.

The tournaments, sponsored at intervals throughout the year by the Tennis Club, have brought an increasing number of players with each new competitive meet. In the most recent tourney, divided between the last two Sundays because of the increased number of contestants, a total of 28 players met on the courts. During this competitive period, the Sierra Madre Tennis Club also accepted several new members which increased the club's total membership to approximately 40 active participants, according to Peter Cowell, secretary-treasurer for the organization.

Cowell also says that, although the Tennis Club members feel that an almost full capacity has been reached, new memberships will be considered.

Canyon Pool
To Operate in Extended Term

Because of the prolonged hot-weather spell, and because of many requests that Sierra Madre's only public swimming pool be kept open for awhile beyond its usual closing date after Labor Day, Mayor Charles H. James has announced that the Canyon Pool here will remain in operation throughout this week to Sunday at 6 p.m.

The swimming hours are from 1 to 6 p.m., except Friday when the pool also is open in the evening from 7 to 9 o'clock. The pool this year has had one of its most successful seasons, according to Harold S. Turner who has managed it this summer for the third time. According to him and his son, Wally, assisting as lifeguard, the pool recently has averaged from 300 to 400 swimmers a day.

Turner, who took the responsibilities for conducting activities at the pool in 1950 and '51 along with this year, has been a physical education instructor at Marshall Junior High School and now is a French and Spanish teacher.

William Lees Baffles Many
As 'Unretired' Retired Man

Although William R. Lees has officially been retired from his full-time capacity as Sierra Madre's building inspector since Sept. 1, many people in town are wondering, "Is Bill Lees really retired or isn't he?"

The reason for the big question is because Bill Lees, who has worked as the city's building inspector for almost 18 years, is still seen around City Hall in what appears to be the same job that he has always done in all those years. Although the law requires that his age, which is 71 years, must put him in the retirement bracket, Bill is still in there pitching even though legalities require him to work now only on a part-time basis.

So Bill Lees, a man who came here in 1906 from his birthplace in Minneapolis, Minn., is still serving the City

Calling All Semaon
Club Members!

There will be an important meeting of the Semaon Club, recently organized youth group, at the clubhouse Thursday evening, Sept. 8, at 7:30 o'clock. It was announced this week. All members are requested to be present.

PTA Carnival Being Planned for Oct. 29

The annual Sierra Madre PTA School Carnival is being planned for Oct. 29, according to carnival committee members who met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Del Valle, 281 W. Carter Ave., Aug. 23.

Because the theme of the carnival this year will be "International Relations," local persons of foreign descent who may have ideas for costumes and activities that could be used in the game booths are asked to telephone Mrs. Charles Fretz at CUster 5-3892.

G. G. McMillans Home
From Two-Week Trip

Police Chief and Mrs. Gordon G. McMillan, 368 Mariposa, have returned from a two-week vacation, with most of the time spent fishing in Utah.

They were in attendance at the wedding of their son, Ronald, Aug. 19 in Leighton, Utah. Before returning home they visited Bryce and Zion National Parks.

LOCATING OF RELATIVES
DETERMINES FUNERAL DATE

Funeral services, pending the locating of relatives, will be set at a future date for Lawrence Berg, 86, of 405 Churchill Road—the Briar Hill Lodge for elderly men—who died Saturday afternoon from a heart condition which doctors said was complicated by the unusually hot weather.

Ripple Mortuary is in charge of arrangements.

TOWNSMAN TOM SCHWARTZ congratulates Art Embree on his 30 years of postal service at the Community Supper given in Embree's honor last week. The assistant postmaster will be officially retired on Sept. 30 and he told The News he "will putter around the yard and do as he darned pleases."—(Bert Embree Photo.)

Law Against 'Litterbugs' Now in Effect

California's litter-strewn highways are to be targets of a new motor vehicle law which is in effect as of Sept. 7.

After that date the "litterbug" will be guilty of a misdemeanor, according to an act which passed the legislature at its recent session. Governor Knight signed the measure, Senate Bill No. 52, on April 11. Enforcement of the new law, Section 600.5 of the motor vehicle code, will mark a triumph for many state groups which have for years sought means of keeping the state's highways clean. Women's clubs, garden clubs, Parent-Teacher Associations, the California State Chamber of Commerce, many public officials, and numerous private enterprises are among those seeking cleaner highways.

"We have asked (the public) to practice the same good housekeeping in their cars that they do at home," says William J. Losh, chairman of the Roadside Cleanup Committee, California State Chamber of Commerce.

"Our program includes (1) education of the motoring public to carry a trash bag in the car, placing in it all little accumulated while driving and finally disposing of it when a proper receptacle is reached, or carrying it home; (2) placing trash cans along state highways; and (3) strict enforcement of state and local laws."

Lee Shippey asks

What Do You Think?

Editor's Note: The opinions expressed in Mr. Shippey's column are not necessarily those of the editors and publishers of the NEWS. If you disagree with Mr. Shippey, who asks, "What Do You Think?", please address your letters to this per- or to Mr. Shippey. It is the intention of THE NEWS to stimulate provocative thought and what YOU think is an important part of our program in presenting both sides to public questions of the day. Naturally, we cannot use letters which are abusive or unsigned. We not only invite, but encourage you to use our "Letters to the Editor" column.

Now one Los Angeles car dealer offers a year's supply of gasoline with each new car purchased, and the fellow who offers $800 trade-in on your 1946 model—apparently of any make and in any condition—is still at it. What fools we mortals be if we can't see that that is price cutting, pure and simple, and that the cars must be overpriced to start with to make it possible.

I think it would be a fine thing for this country if no manufacturer could put out more than one new model in each field in three years. As it is now, motor cars are keeping most of the citizens of this country broke, and millions of persons do not try to get full value out of their purchases, preferring to trade them in on next year's model while the trade-in value is high. This keeps so many of us perpetually in debt that if hard luck strikes us—or a depression, heaven forbid—the whole country suffers. The motor car is a grand thing for pleasure, business and convenience. Properly used and kept within one's means, it is a great blessing. But far too many Americans go far too deep into debt in order to have as nifty a car as the Joneses have—and that was the spirit which brought the crash of 1929 on us.

*****

Postmasters come and go, but we thought Arthur Embree, who has piloted so many of them safely, would go on forever. A town he has served long and well will wish him all the pleasure he can get out of retirement.

The Friends of the Library are somewhat embarrassed by the great success of their first motion picture in the Library Community Room, which drew such a crowd that all the children had to sit on the floor and many adults were standing. The aim is to make all these entertainments not only educational and entertaining but full of information which may be valuable to anyone who sees and hears. That is a high standard to maintain, but the program committee will do its best.

The second program, on Friday, Sept. 23, is to be "This Is My Land," picturing the history and progress of Southern California. Many of us in Sierra Madre do not realize that it would be easy to trace the title of the land we live on back to the time when all this area belonged to San Gabriel Mission. After expropriation of the mission lands, Rancho Santa Anita was granted to Don Hugo Reid, who had married an Indian girl educated at the Mission, sold by him to Lucky Baldwin and later carved into the townships of Sierra Madre and Arcadia, so that many of us live on land which has had very few owners since it was taken from the Indians.

I have not seen "This Is My Land," but persons who have seen it assure me they learned much of value from it, and seeing it made them better informed and prouder Californians. Incidentally, the first showing will be at 7:30 and will not quite take half an hour, so that persons who wish to bring their children may do so and still go on to any other meeting or engagement at 8 o'clock. There will be a second showing at 8:15. That way, there should be chairs for all.

Local Baha'is Send Plea to Eisenhower for Intervention

Sierra Madre Baha'is have recently joined nearly 400 Baha'is communities throughout the nation in telegraphing pleas to President Eisenhower that he intervene on behalf of the persecuted Baha'is of Iran.

The action was taken, local Baha'is said, after they received a verified report of further atrocities, including the hacking to pieces of seven Baha'is by a mob of 2,000 persons near the city of Yazd, Iran.

An appeal to the United Nations was filed with the Secretary-General in Geneva on Aug. 1 by the Baha'is International Community as the representative of 12 National Baha'is Assemblies throughout the world. Copies of the appeal have been made available to the United Nations delegation.

The appeal calls "the attention of the competent authorities of the United Nations of the Governments, members of the United Nations, to recent action taken in Iran against persons and property of the Baha'is in flagrant violation of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the Charter of the United Nations."

both signed by the government of Iran, and ratified by the Iranian Parliament."

The appeal the U.N. cites press dispatches reporting the action of the Iranian government in May of this year, when it denounced the Baha'is Faith and seized its national center in Tehran. It also is documented with 16 annexes, including details of 26 specific cases of persecution, and photographs showing high military officials and Iranian leaders of Islam participating in the destruction of the dome of the national Baha'is Center in Tehran. Further, the appeal quotes specific passages in both the Declaration of Human Rights and the Charter of the United Nations which grant fundamental human rights for all "without distinction as to race, sex, language or religion."

Local Baha'is explained that the attacks on the Baha'is in Iran started in May of this year, following a radio broadcast by a fanatical Moslem priest. In addition to the slayings near Yazd, there have been more than 25 cases of persecution, including the plundering of Baha'is homes, the beating of Baha'is and the desecration of Baha'is holy places and cemeteries in Iran.

The telegram to the President read as follows:

"Your illumined statement on human rights in Philadelphia today prompts this plea that you use your influence of your world-wide prestige in behalf of our fellow-Baha'is in Iran. These innocent, law-abiding citizens are being persecuted and butchered in the most fiendish manner despite the fact that the Baha'is Faith promulgates universal brotherhood and world peace. We beg of you to ask the Shah to stop these unbelievable atrocities immediately and prevent further massacres. Your defense of the principle of justice for all mankind will remind Iran and all other countries of their obligations to their own citizens under the United Nations' Declaration of Human Rights. We pray God will assist you in considering this urgent request.—The Baha'is of Sierra Madre."

DIET AND POLIO PREVENTION

The year 1955 will doubtless be remembered for a long time in relation to polio and the Salk Vaccine. Whether for success or failure is still quite uncertain. On June 3, 1955, the New York Times published a statement by a nationally known bacteriologist, Howard J. Shaugnessy of the University of Illinois, who said that the public should know there is a calculated risk in receiving injections of the Salk Vaccine. It is interesting to note that European countries are not following our lead of mass inoculations.

There are other preventive measures which are sound and deserve serious consideration by all parents, Benjamin Sandler, M.D., was instrumental in stopping a serious polio epidemic in North Carolina. He went to the newspapers and on the air with a special diet for polio prevention. So worried were the parents locally that they seized on the diet and followed it faithfully for weeks. The polio cases dropped almost magically.

Here is Dr. Sandler's successful polio prevention diet:

1. Eliminate from the diet all sugar and foods containing sugar such as soft drinks, fruit juices (except tomato juice), ice cream, cakes, pastries, pies, candies, canned and preserved fruits.
2. Cut down on the consumption of starchy foods, such as bread, rolls, pancakes, potatoes, rice, corn, cereals and grits and white flour products.
3. Substitute for starchy foods the following: tomatoes, string beans, cucumbers, greens, lettuce, carrots, beets, cabbage, onions, soybeans, cauliflower.
4. Do not eat fruit or melons more than once daily and then only in moderate quantities.
5. Eat more protective food such as meat, fish, poultry, etc.
6. Eat three substantial meals a day. Avoid excessive exertion and excessive fatigue because they are known to be associated with low blood sugar. Avoid swimming in cold water. Rest as much as possible.

If you want to read the full story, get Dr. Sandler's book, "Diet Prevents Polio," published by the Lee Foundation for Nutritional Research, 2023 W. Wisconsin Ave., Milwaukee, Wis.—Adv.

It was Aldus Manutius, over 450 years ago, who created a new kind of printed book, the cheap pocket edition. At that time, scholarly and religious works were the main content.

Printed maps helped Columbus, Magellan, Drake, Cortez, Hudson, find new lands and make charts for others to follow.

Pacific Coast Conference football gets under way on the night of Sept. 16. UCLA is going to play Texas A&M on that night, and then on Saturday, the 17th, all nine teams of the Coast Conference except UCLA officially open the 1955 season.

Washington State is coming to L.A. to battle SC in their big opener. The Trojans have such stars as Mary Goux, Gordon Duval, Orlando Ferrante, Leon Clarke, Jim Contratto, and Jon Arnett returning to the fold. With 24 returning lettermen the Red and Gold are intent on winning the conference title although the PCC no-repeat rule will keep them out of the Rose Bowl.

On the Trojan '55 roster are two boys who formerly played for the Pasadena City College Lancers. The first boy is Mickey Downs who played halfback last year for the PCCers. Mickey is only 19, is 5'10" and weighs 180 pounds. Downs who also played for Marshall Junior High is posted at the right half spot. The other lad is Chuck Perlich who graduated from PCC in 1952 and he now has a year experience on the SC varsity. Chuck plays left end, is 6'2", and weighs 181 pounds. He's married and is the fourth oldest man on the squad—25 years young.

PTA to Hold Coffee Hour September 13

The Sierra Madre PTA will fete all parents of new school children at an informal coffee hour the first day of school, Sept. 13. The coffee hour will be held in Room 12 at the Sierra Madre School and on the breezeway at the Sierra Mesa School. Serving hours will be at 8:30 a.m. and 12 noon. An invitation is cordially extended to all to drop in and get acquainted over a cup of coffee.

PTA School Luncheon At Richard Thayers

The traditional "back to school" luncheon given by the Executive Board of the PTA for the teachers and school staff will be held at the home of the Richard Thayers, 201 W. Carter (Wistaria Vine), Monday, Sept. 12, at 11:30 a.m.

Coach Jess Hill will be using practically the same offensive and defensive lineups as he did last year. The Trojans usually come out of the huddle and line up in a tight T behind an unbalanced line to the left, either from that formation or shifting to a single wing left or a wing-T. Line may be split wider on shift or close up.

On the defense the left half-back becomes the safety man, and the quarterback becomes the defensive left half, the full-back becomes the right line-backer in a 6-2 defense with the center the left line-backer. In a 5-3 defense the left end usually becomes the left line-backer with the center moving over to the middle line-backer. Then the offensive inside tackle is the defensive left tackle.

The Trojans are going to be acting like tigers this year, but UCLA will go to the Rose Bowl. (That's a prediction.)

This is the twelfth year for Phil Rizzuto as an active Yankee. By the way, Phil is not his real name, it's Piero . . . Here's an interesting item that just came over the teletype—One horse can provide about four dozen baseball covers. Golly darn!

James M. Vernon, Jr., Receives Burns

Airman 2/c James M. Vernon, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Vernon, 785 Skyland Drive, arrived home on a month's leave from McDill Air Force Base, Fla., to attend the wedding of his brother, J. Wallace Vernon, and Lorraine May Geiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Geiss of El Monte, Sept. 3 in the Nativity Catholic Church, El Monte.

Last week he was helping another brother, Joe, repair the roof on his Cypress Court home when there was an accident and he burned his foot. He received treatment from Dr. George W. Groth, Jr., in the Sierra Madre Hospital. His injuries are improving and it was possible for him to attend his brother's wedding but he was not able to usher as had been planned.

ALA Rummage Sale September 9 and 10

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary will meet tonight in the gardens of Mrs. William Hopper, 317 N. Auburn, at 6:30 o'clock for a potluck supper and to make final plans for the group's rummage sale slated for tomorrow and Saturday on Robert's lot, 147 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., next to William Fischer Beauty Shop.

Mrs. Helen Wheeler, chairman of the event, announced the proceeds will be used for veterans' rehabilitation and child welfare.

Mrs. Eva Graves was hostess at the auxiliary's last meeting and entertained the guests with color slides of her trip through Ireland and Germany as well as slides taken on her three-week trip with the Audubon Society of California.

Luncheon Meeting For Acacia Mothers

Members of the Acacia Fraternity Mothers' Club of the University of California at Los Angeles were recently entertained at a luncheon party in the Brentwood home of their president, Dr. Mary Leigh.

Following the showing of pictures, by Dr. Florida Graham of her recent trip abroad, plans were made for the opening meeting of the club year next month and for the group's rummage sale slated for November. Proceeds from this event will be used for the Chapter House.

Mrs. Marshall Annis, 674 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., is membership chairman for the Mothers' Club.

Jean Osti Wins Angling Award

Mrs. Fred Osti, 271 N. Grove, and her children, Jean, Danny and Louie, have returned from a five-week stay at Newport Beach, Calif.

Jean, 14, received the championship trophy and a lovely fishing pole and reel, from the Balboa Angling Club, as the winner in the girls' division for landing the largest variety of fish.

The Junior Angling Club is made up of children under 16. Both the boys and girls have their own divisions to compete in and Jean landed 17 different

Civic Club Members Slate First Meeting

Members of the Civic Club are urged to attend the group's first meeting of the club year this evening in the home of Mrs. Joe Custer, 68 W. Mira Monte. Plans will be discussed for a formal tea to be given at the Richard H. Barden home to introduce prospective new members. The agenda will also include an outline of activities for the coming year.

The leukemia ward for the children at the City of Hope was the club's main philanthropy last year but donations were also made to the Sierra Madre Toy Loan, Campfire Girls, Mariners, Sister Kenny Foundation, March of Dimes, Cemetery Association, Friends of the Library, and the new rapidly growing youth project of Sierra Madre, the Semanons.

Mrs. Wayne Stinnet, elected president for the second term, conducted the last business meeting, at which time it was decided that the splendid beginning of the Semanons warranted further support and encouragement. Therefore, for the ensuing year, the growth and future of the Semanons will be the club's major project.

Pro-America Plans Meeting Sept. 19

Foothill Towns Unit of Pro-America will hold its first meeting of the year Monday, Sept. 19, at 10 a.m. in Hinshaw's Auditorium, Arcadia.

Study program is from 10 a.m. until 11 a.m. with the day's program at 11:15 a.m. James Jauncey will speak on "What Makes America Great."

or as known to said Clerk, and to any person who has filed his name and address, and the designation of the lands in which he has any interest either legal or equitable, with said Clerk, all as provided in Section 35311 of the Government Code of the State of California.

Sunday Theme On 'Substance'

The words of Jesus from John (6:27) "Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed," comprise the Golden Text for the Lesson-Sermon on "Substance" to be read in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

That true substance is of the spirit and not to be found in material things is accented by Paul where he says in his second letter to the Corinthians, "We look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal" (4:18).

Explaining the Christian Science viewpoint are the statements from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "Substance is that which is eternal and incapable of discord and decay . . . Spirit, the synonym of Mind, Soul, or God, is the only real substance. The spiritual universe, including individual man, is a compound idea, reflecting the divine substance of Spirit." Also, "Spirit is the only substance, the invisible and indivisible infinite God. Things spiritual and eternal are substantial. Things material and temporal are insubstantial." (pp. 468, 335).

'Rest, Relaxation, Religion' Congregational Subject

On this coming Sunday, Sept. 11, Rev. George Lindsay will speak of the paradox which confronts us when we have more and more leisure time, but somehow seem to be busier and busier. His sermon topic is "Rest, Relaxation, and Religion."

Last Sunday Mr. Lindsay spoke on the theme, "Work: Blessing or Curse." He pointed out that, while many of us dream of the time when we won't have to exert ourselves in any kind of labor, we actually find ourselves frustrated and disappointed when we have no useful work to do. For God has made man to undertake significant use of his energies, and we are only happy when we are doing work which satisfies us.

He went on to recognize that, in a mechanized society, all of us cannot easily find either significance or satisfaction in our labors. Many jobs are dull, routine, enervating. But if there is a sense of being always, in every place, a channel of God's love, even the dull job can be transformed.

Particularly is this true of the work which involves close

The Foothill Jewish Community Center will participate in these services for the High Holy Days. Rabbi Charles W. Steckel, their spiritual leader, has prepared a series of related sermons to be delivered during this period.

Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock his sermon will follow with "The Key to Maturity." Sunday morning, commencing at 8:30 o'clock, Rabbi Steckel will deliver his third sermon in this series, "The Key to Self Examination."

Sunday, Sept. 25, Yom Kippur services will begin at 7 p.m. with the traditional chanting of Kol Nidre. For this service, Rabbi Steckel will speak on "The Key to Forgiveness." ## First Pops Concert Sept. 9 to Feature Talented Sisters Josette and Yvette Roman, duo-pianists, will share guest artist honors with Howard Keel at the opening concert of the Pasadena Pops to be held Friday evening, Sept. 9, at Santa Anita Turf Club. David Rose conducts the musical programs again for the fourth consecutive year.

Born in Paris of an exceptionally musical family, Josette and Yvette Roman have studied with such teachers as Magda Tagliaferro, Armand Ferte and Jules Gentil, and at the Conservatoire National de Paris.

The sisters made their debut in New York in 1950 and were hailed as the "flawless ensemble" by the New York Herald-Tribune. An engagement with the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra under Pierre Monteux followed.

Since that time, the Romans have made annual American tours, and in the spring and summer of 1954, made a European tour which included such highlights as performances in Strasbourg, Geneva and Paris, as well as radio appearances with the Orchestre de la Radio-diffusion Francaise. In addition to their many concert and orchestra appearances, the sisters have appeared on radio, television and in films.

Tickets for the concert may be obtained by calling SYcamore 6-8850 during the hours 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Pasadena Pops, a series of four concerts to be presented Sept. 9, 16, 23 and 30, are sponsored by the Junior League of Pasadena.

Haney-Vangen Nuptials Sept. 2 in Tremont Baptist Church, Pasadena

Marlene Louise Vangen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Vangen, 429 W. Grandview, exchanged nuptial vows with Danny Jo Haney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Haney of Dayton, Ohio, Sept. 2 in the Tremont Baptist Church, Pasadena, with Rev. Frank A. Robertson officiating.

A profusion of white flowers banked the altar and baskets of pastel flowers, ferns and candelabra were used to complete the church decoration.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor length gown of white lace and net over satin. The fitted bodice was topped by a lace jacket and the full three-tier skirt was held out by a hoop. The shoulder length veil was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. A spray of white orchids, lilies of the valley and stephanotis was arranged on a white Bible and carried by the bride.

Mrs. William Willets, the former Patricia Justice, was matron of honor and wore a blue figured nylon over taffeta ballerina length dress and carried a bouquet of yellow spider mums.

The bridesmaid, Faith Guthrie, was attired in an identical dress in yellow and carried bronze spider mums. Both girls wore net crowns, to match their frocks, with tiny flowers woven in them.

The bride's small cousin, Nancy Ann Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith, Jr., was flower girl. Her dress as well as her bouquet was of pink and white.

Robert Rethford was best man and the ushers were Norman Vangen, brother of the bride, and Darrell Ower, cousin of the bride.

An afternoon dress of aqua lace over taffeta, with champagne accessories, was worn by the bride's mother and her co-

Ranch Nursery School Opens Monday A. M.; Teachers Announced

Hastings Ranch Nursery School will begin its third year Monday, with its new director, Mrs. Lois Barnard, on hand to greet the wide-eyed little pre-schoolers and their mothers.

Although the school normally is open from 9 to 11:30 a.m., classes Monday and Tuesday will start at 10 a.m. to avoid tiring the youngsters on the first days. Children are registered in three age groups, from two years nine months through four years, and are signed up for Monday-Wednesday-Friday or Tuesday-Thursday.

Three teachers are employed, one for each age group, with two of them Hastings residents. Mrs. Richard W. James, who is returning for the second year, lives at 970 Hastings Ranch.

Mrs. Warren W. Silliman, Jr., 3770 Landfair, who will be a new teacher this year, taught last year at Anokaia. She received her education at San Jose State and UCLA.

Since the school is a cooperative, one mother helper will assist each teacher at all sessions, with two other mothers assisting when needed during the morning.

There are one or two openings in each class, the Nursery School Board announced. Those interested in enrolling their children should inquire Monday morning at the school, which is located at the rear of Trinity Presbyterian Church, Hastings Ranch and Sierra Madre Blvd. Classes are limited to 12 per group, making 36 children each morning, or 72 total enrollment.

Directors of the school, elected by the parent members in May, are Mrs. Virgil Anglin, president; Mrs. Edwin Cowan, secretary; William Caldecott, treasurer; Mrs. Caleb McCormick, school operations; Mrs. Grant Brown, school operations; Mrs. Clyde Seitz, ways and means; Mrs. Rex Thompson, parent education; Tullio Ronzini, father helper program; William Hogboom, community relations; Mrs. Robert Prescott, publicity and Mrs. George Vane and Mrs. Howard Hitchcock, liaison.

Northeast Pasadena School Study Group Sponsors Evening Discussion

Hastings Ranch residents who recently banded together to study Pasadena's educational needs, chose Charles W. Cole, 1110 Medford, as chairman.

The name selected for the group is Northeast Pasadena School Study Group.

Elected vice chairman were M. Carr Wilson, 1075 Pine Bluff, and Henry S. Myers, 3695 Denair. The secretary is Mary Lou Ripley, 1265 Rexford, and Ralph D. Bann, 1340 Coronet, is treasurer.

Other members of the steering committee are Joseph Rosener, Jr., Alan R. Stearns and Jack Cressman.

Members have stated they organized as a "non-political group dedicated to no educational philosophy other than to obtain the best possible public education for our children in the most efficient manner."

The group called a meeting last week to discuss possible sites for a new school. Pasadena Mayor Warren M. Dorn, in answering an audience question relative to school use of park property, said he would work unceasingly to arrange a new Pasadena high school or junior college to use Victory Park in its athletic program, if the school buildings were situated adjacent to the park.

Mayor Dorn and Deputy County Counsel William Lamoreaux brought out that it would be possible to have a contractual arrangement between the city and schools for the latter to use park land, but that under such a lease contract, the school could not be built on park property.

The schools would need approximately 25 acres for high school buildings. The property, where the high school might be located adjacent to the park, is owned privately on the west and north, and by the county on the east.

Another guest speaker, City Manager Don McMillan, was of the opinion that if a school is located on park property it would involve a legal argument, and since classrooms are needed immediately, it would be best to look elsewhere for the school site. Following the Board of Education members' recent tour looking for a school site, several properties were under consideration.

Paul Shaffer, city planning director, was asked by a member of the audience if it would be possible for the county to use the upper Hastings Ranch for its golf course and release the present golf course site, adjacent to the park, for the building of a school.

Shaffer would not comment on this since he was not an expert on golf course layouts. However, he did state that the entire Eaton Canyon Park area had been under extensive study preliminary to the development of a golf course.

Speaking at some length, Mayor Dorn favored the joint city-school use of public property. He commented that McMillan and the former superintendent, Dr. William Goslin, had worked out a park and school arrangement at Allendale School and that it had proved satisfactory.

Mayor Dorn felt that in this day and age of rising costs there is a trend toward cooperation between jurisdictions and he feels the plan could be worked out satisfactorily. He said:

"I don't know why negotiations for joint use of the Victory Park area bogged down. The city offered 15 acres of the park for athletic and recreational use, and the next thing we knew, we read in the newspapers that the schools were going to condemn the whole park. I think all of us living in this city should be able to get together and solve the problem, but I don't know how."

Donald G. Mortensen conducted the panel discussion. Rosener was chairman of the meeting. Other members of the study group assisting on the panel were Mr. Myers, Mr. Cressman and Mr. Cole.

Field Children Set for School

Monday 9 a.m. will find hundreds of Hastings Ranch youngsters, faces washed and shoes on, in their seats at Eugene Field School ready to start on the year's 3 R's.

Mothers will accompany many of the children, especially the younger ones, and then will convene in the cafeteria for an informal coffee and doughnut hour offered each year by the PTA.

Kindergartners who have not previously registered will be required to have a birth certificate, and all will need a health OK from their doctors. Forms for this health check were given to mothers at the time they registered their children for kindergarten in the spring.

Check into those strange knocks and squeaks immediately! They're warning signals that major trouble is on the way. Drive in today and save big expense later on!

Following the elections, canes for the Lions' annual White Cane Day, scheduled for this month, were prepared by Mrs. Joe Delgado, Mrs. Douglas Dickson, Mrs. Gene Gilmore, Mrs. Emory Johnston, Mrs. George Hannaford, Mrs. Percy Kortkamp, Mrs. E. Meyer, Mrs. Sam Simpson, Mrs. Sterling Ripple, Mrs. William Waite, Mrs. Dan Wilson and Mrs. Ralph Welch.

An outing at Belmont Shore was enjoyed by seven of the members, Mrs. Vern Eppard, Mrs. Hamm, Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Gilmore, Mrs. Buttane and Mrs. Kortkamp.

Phil Dike

cent of Bellows and Leon Kroll, but only vaguely, being handled so originally.

One of the best features of Dike's work is his refusal to use extreme "crutches" to help him over difficult passages. In other words, no use of extreme mysticism or over-obscure abstraction to cover feet, hands, and features that are tough to paint. He uses his figures in a fresh contemporary way to add interest to his designs, but seems content to leave the parts in the vicinity of their origin. It's shocking these days to find hands on the ends of arms, but there they are.

The work in the show covers quite a number of years; enough so that one can follow the progress and evolution of the artist as his interests proceeded and change, through "periods" as the "pro" writers might say. These changes are not violent and don't have any blue, pink, or beige tags on them, but they are still there. You can catch them if you look carefully—and you're all invited to look—free, too.

Services Held for Mrs. Teresa Witt

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at Ripple Mortuary Chapel for Mrs. Teresa Amelia Witt who died last Sunday in a Huntington Park rest home following a lengthy illness.

A native of San Andreas, Calif., she once had made her home with her son here, Leonard Witt of 668 Canyon Crest Drive, until her recent move to Huntington Park.

Also surviving her is another son, Earl W. Witt of Pasadena; a brother, Arthur L. Leonard of San Andreas; and seven grandchildren.

The Rev. George W. Lindsay officiated at the services, followed by inurnment at San Andreas.

Nursery School

Those mothers who are assisting this year are:

Mrs. Maurice Bolotin, Mrs. William Vessel, Mrs. Melvin Stine, Mrs. William Morzov, Mrs. Enrique Alonso, Mrs. Richard Deffley, Mrs. Robert Forbes, Mrs. George Barnett, Mrs. Albee Bussy, Mrs. Don Peterson, Mrs. Louis Mass, and Mrs. George Tyree.

All other school mothers assist once each month.

The school was closed from Aug. 12 at the end of the summer session until last Tuesday during which period the teachers took their vacation. Mrs. Jeanne Dennis, the school secretary, visited relatives in San Diego and Mrs. Green flew to Omaha to visit her son, Lt. Col. Charles A. Green of the Strategic Air Command.

The mothers whose children are new to the school this year are meeting for periods of orientation for the next two weeks.

Bill Lees

there, whether he is working or not—officially, that is.

Bill, who has no quarrel with the retirement systems—in fact, he likes the whole arrangement—first went into business in Sierra Madre when he and his brother, Sam, established a food and soft drinks stand at the intersection of Highland and Mountain Trail in the days when the "old red trolleys" unloaded car after car of mountain-climbing tourists. His father, Robert Lees, had come here before him and Bill liked the idea of making Sierra Madre a family affair.

After a two-year operation of what today might be called a "hot dog stand," Bill and Sam sold their trade to a Mrs. Johana Sanger and with the passing of time Bill became involved with carpentry and general construction work through which he met not only Lucky Baldwin but, more important to him, a girl named Marian.

So he and Marian were married and they had a son whom they named Richard, better known as Dick Lees, an insurance expert now associated with Harry Lange's insurance and real estate office.

During his many years in Sierra Madre, Bill Lees served as a City Councilman from 1930 to 1938. Most of the old-timers around town believe that Bill, whether he be 71 or 21, knows the place as well as anyone—and probably better than most.

That's why the folks who have been here for awhile are glad to see William R. Lees still "hangin' around City Hall"—because they like the sight of Bill—the building - inspector, whether it be part-time, full-time, or any time.

Funeral Services For Mrs. Pound

Private funeral services were conducted Tuesday morning at Ripple Mortuary Chapel for Mrs. Edith Kelly Pound, formerly of Long Beach, who died Saturday. A native of Pontiac, Mich., she was 77 and had made her home in Long Beach for the past five years.

She is survived by a son, Ronald K. Merritt of Sierra Madre; a daughter, Mrs. Eunice Stowell Hallock with whom she made her home in Long Beach; and a brother, Chester Kelly of Pontiac.

The Rev. George W. Lindsay officiated at the services. Inurnment was at the Pasadena Mausoleum.

Funeral Services For Mrs. H. Rowe

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 10:30 at Rose Chapel, Rose Hills Cemetery, Whittier, for Mrs. Hilma Rowe who lived with her brother, Carl Olson, at 168 N. Lima.

A resident of Sierra Madre for many years, she died suddenly last Tuesday afternoon, apparently from heat prostration, at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Saline of La Habra.

She is survived also by three other brothers, Gustaf and Frederick Olson, both of Minneapolis and Oscar Olson of Los Angeles.

Around the Square

The News' society editor, has reminded us that more than driverless cars have caused talk on the Rees Market parking lot.

Seems that a gentleman-in-a-hurry climbed into his car there, pressed the starter button, and heard a horrible yowling from the engine. Lifting the hood to see if the motor had suddenly disintegrated, he found a Siamese cat lodged around the fan belt.

Then came the cat's owner, a woman who was there to defend her pet. The gentleman agreed that no one wished to harm the cat, but he also was in a hurry and something had to be done. He also said that he had no intention of driving through town with a feline screaming beneath the hood of his car.

As people gathered around to discuss the situation some of the helpful men at Andy and Bill's service station across the street on Lima came over and it was decided that the simplest way to remove the cat would be to cut the fan belt. So the woman bought the gentleman a new fan belt which he didn't want in the first place because all he wanted was to get the heck out of there.

Why is it that things like that always happen when you are in a hurry?

Suppose, for instance, you were late to work or delayed in keeping an important engagement and you walk in, saying: "Sorry I'm late, but a cat got caught in my fan belt!"

We were late to a CBS night assignment in the days, or nights, when Steve Allen had his midnight radio show, the one that launched him into a nationwide success. Later, we told Lloyd Brownfield, our boss, that our tardiness was because we had been knocked down by an owl.

It was the truth. We had been knocked down in our own patio by an owl protecting its young and after we had rolled with the blow we had nothing but grass stains all over our suit and shirt. We had to make a complete change, so we were late to work because we had been knocked down by an owl. But do you think Brownie believes it—even to this day? Nuhuh!

Herb Caen, San Francisco columnist, says: "The world might be in crisis, and oblivion might be waiting around the corner—but all a guy wants right now is a place to park."

One of the ways modern printing is helping win the freedom of men and women behind the iron curtain is in psychological warfare. Here mobile high speed printing units which can operate from 120° above zero to 40° below, in easily moved trailers, print 40,000 leaflets in any language in one hour. When any such common facility is to occupy a site of five-thousand square feet or more, then the parking requirements for such site shall be computed separately for each of two or more participating buildings or uses may be reduced not more than fifteen per cent upon approval of development plans by the Planning Commission in the manner prescribed for a conditional use permit as set forth in Article 14.

Open, unenclosed porches not extending above the level of the first floor may project into the required width of such side yard; provided, such porches shall not reduce to less than three feet the unobstructed pedestrian way or sidewalk at the ground level.

Section 1221: REQUIRED INCREASE OF SIDE YARD WHERE MULTIPLE OR ROW DWELLINGS FRONT UPON A SIDE YARD. The minimum width of the side yard upon which dwellings front shall be not less than one and one-half times the width of the side yard to the rear of such dwellings. Through lots one hundred eighty feet or more in depth may be improved as two separate lots, with the dividing line midway between the two frontages, and each resulting one-half shall be subject to the control applying to the street upon which such one-half faces. If the division results in parcels having less than the minimum lot area required in this ordinance, then no division may be made. If the whole of any through lot is improved as one building-site, the main building shall conform to the zone classification of the frontage upon which such main building faces and no accessory building shall be located closer to either street than the distance constituting the required front yard on such street.

Section 1224: LOT AREA NOT TO BE REDUCED. No lot area shall be so reduced or diminished that the lot area, or other open space shall be smaller than prescribed by this ordinance, nor shall the density of population be increased in any manner except in conformity with the regulations established by this ordinance.

Section 1225: GREATER LOT AREA MAY BE REQUIRED. Greater lot areas than those prescribed in the various zones may be required when such greater areas are established by the adoption of a precise plan in the manner prescribed by law, designating the location and size of such greater required areas.

Section 1226: SUBSTANDARD LOTS. When a lot has less than the minimum required area or zones contained hereon or in a precise plan and was of record on the effective date of this ordinance such lot shall be deemed to have complied with the minimum required lot area or width as set forth in any such zone or precise plan. The area per dwelling unit shall, however, remain as specified in each zone, except that such standard lot shall qualify for only one single-family residence in any event.

Section 1227: DIVISION OF LOTS CONTAINING MORE THAN MINIMUM REQUIRED AREA. When any lot in any zone contains a greater area than the required minimum area of the zone in which it is contained, then each unit of the required minimum area contained in such lot may be utilized as a separate lot, provided that any division does not create more than four lots and that each such lot thus created complies with the provisions of the subdivision ordinance governing split lots.
